25X1 The hangars and other installations at the Kamenz (N 52/A 41) airfield were demolished but the sodded landing field was intact so that the field was considered to be serviceable. No occupation or guard detail was seen.

25X1 Comment:

The condition of the field has apparently not changed compared with the last observation in December 1948. It has not been observed since December 1948 that the field was occupied or temporarily used by air force units.
